Equity in Residence of the Late Dr. T. M. Hills Bought by His Daughter. The equity in the residence of the late Dr. T. Morton Hills on North street was sold Thursday morning by Rev. Alfred Free of Northampton, administrator of the estate, to Dr. Laura Heath Hills.

There was no one else present at the sale with a view of securing the equity in the property. It was considered that the same was of scant value because of a heavy mortgage on the property.

Dr. L. H. Hills stated that she was going to live in the house and have her office there. Beyond that she had no definite pians relating to the building, which was constructed for a private hospital and residence. vate hospital and residence.

The legal papers in the transaction were filed at the office of the town clerk Thursday afternoon, Dr. Hills paying one collar for the equity. She then redeemed the mortgage, paying the money over to Frank P. Fenton, trustee of the Delia E. Dairymple estate, that held the mortgage. Dr. Laura Heath Hills is now sole owner of the property.

Thompson and Crane were again in the points for Natchaug and the vanquished Freshies were ably steadled down by Jackte Keirans and Hoffman, although handicapped by a few ascensions on the part of their team mates at critical stages of an exceptionally interesting and well fought battle. Principal James L. Harroun of the Natchaug school handled the indicator and gave excellent satisfaction to the players and spectators alike. It is probable that a number of other games may be arranged with the Freshies, as there appears to be some lingering doubt as to the true strength of each Papers weer served by Constable William J. Hastings, and a certificate of the attachment has been filed with the town clerk.

The O'Loughlin property is the site when the American flag, which had been secreted in the balcony, and at the close of Vice President James Sherman's remarks floated over the audience, brought the scene very close to the home chapter.

Girl's Head Encrusted - Feared Loss of All Her Hair-Baby Had Milk-Crust-Missionary's Wife Made PERFECT CURES BY CUTICURA

"For several years my husband was a missionary in the Southwest. Every one in that high and dry atmosphere has more or less trouble with dandruff and my daughter's scalp became so encrusted with it that I was alarmed for fear she would lose all her hair. After trying various remedies, in desperation I bought a cake of Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment. They left the scalp beautifully clean and free from dandruff and I am happy to say that the Cuticura Remedies were a complete success. I have also used successfully the Cuticura Remedies for so-called 'milk-crust' on baby's head. Cuticura is a blessing. Mrs. J. A. Darling, 310 Fifth St., Carthage, Ohio, Jan. 20, 1968."
